c) Conditional Discount,

Conditional Discount

subject to negotiations

2. Discount for Advertiser expenditure is granted to the Client provided that the given Client, by the last day of February of a given calendar year, submits the Declaration regarding net expenditures of a given Client or Advertisers for whose benefit the Client acts, and it acts in line with the Declaration. The Discount for Advertiser expenditure is granted also based on the actual annual expenditure of the Client/Advertiser.
3. Should the Declaration submitted by the Client pertain to more than one Advertiser, only the declared net expenditure of that Advertiser shall be taken into account in order to determine the Discount for annual expenditure for a given Advertiser.
4. The amount of Discount for Advertiser expenditure for Clients who failed to submit the Declaration shall be calculated progressively, in accordance with the discount table included in the Commercial Policy. The progressive method of calculation of the Discount for Advertiser expenditure shall mean that the amount of Discount for successive Advertising Campaigns shall be calculated on the basis of the sum of net expenditure for a planned Advertiser Campaign and the campaigns already performed since 1 January of given calendar year.
5. The performance of the Declaration shall mean meeting the declared Annual Net Expenditure. Should the Declaration not be performed, AMS shall have the right to demand that the Client reimburse or adjust the Discount for Advertiser expenditure. Reimbursement or adjustment of the Discount for Advertiser expenditure shall be made via correction of invoices for each Order covered by a Discount for Advertiser expenditure, in accordance with item 7.8 of the Commercial Policy.
6. Agency Discount is granted solely to a Client that is a media house or an advertising agency.
7. The Agency Discount is granted provided that the Client, by the last day of February of given calendar year, submits the Declaration and it acts in line with the Declaration. The Agency Discount is granted also based on the actual annual expenditure of the Client. Advertising agencies or media houses may jointly declare expenditure, however in such a case the consequences of incurring Annual Net Expenditure below or above the amount jointly declared shall pertain to all the Clients that jointly submitted their Declaration.
8. The amount of the Agency Discount shall be calculated progressively, in accordance with the discount table included in the Commercial Policy. The progressive method of calculation of the Agency Discount shall mean that the amount of Agency Discount for successive Advertising Campaigns shall be calculated on the basis of the sum of net expenditure for a planned Client Campaign and the campaigns already performed since 1 January of a given calendar year.
9. The performance of the Declaration shall mean meeting the declared Annual Net Expenditure. Should the Declaration not be performed, AMS shall have the right to demand that the Client reimburse or adjust the Agency Discount to reimburse or adjust the Agency Discount. Reimbursement or adjustment of the Agency Discount shall be made via correction of invoices for each Order covered by the Agency Discount, in accordance with item 7.8 of the Commercial Policy.
10. The Conditional Discount shall be granted based on individual negotiations conducted with the Client, and its amount shall depend on, among others, the type of Media on which a given Advertising Campaign is to be performed, Other Services performed in connection with a given Advertising Campaign, the period in which a given Advertising Campaign is to be organised and the type of business conducted by the Advertiser.
11. For the purpose of calculation of discounts due to the Client/Advertiser, AMS shall take into account the Net Advertising Campaign Expenditure, including Other Services performed at AMS by a given Client/Advertiser in the period from 1 January 2020 to 31 December of given calendar year.

VII Final provisions

1. All the commercial arrangements made in the course of negotiations as well as the content of the Order, framework contracts and arrangements made by e-mail as well as any information and data received by the parties due to their conclusion shall constitute business secret within the meaning of the Act of 16 April 1993 on combatting unfair competition, and may not be disclosed to any third parties without prior written consent of the party they pertain to, unless they are commonly known or if the obligation to disclose them stems from the provisions of binding law or a final decision of the court or administration body, or the disclosing is connected with performing the transparency audit of the executed Commercial Policy.

2. AMS shall have the right to perform a quarterly verification of whether the Clients/Advertisers met the declared Annual Net Expenditure.
3. If in the course of the quarterly verification AMS observes any circumstances which may threaten the performance of the provisions of the Annual Framework Contract (if such a contract was concluded) and the Declarations submitted by the Client, AMS shall have the right to amend the commercial terms and conditions agreed beforehand for the subsequent quarters of given calendar year, and it shall take as the basis for Annual Net Expenditure the value in the band between the expenditure estimated pro rata to the relation of the actually incurred expenditure to the declared Annual Net Expenditure at the end of a given quarter, calculated cumulatively from the beginning of the year, and the value ensuing from the actually made expenditure.
4. Following the termination of given calendar year, AMS shall verify the Annual Net Expenditure actually made by Clients/Advertisers in a given year, and it shall issue proper correction invoices.
5. Based on the actual Annual Net Expenditure AMS shall set out the commercial terms and conditions the Client/Advertiser is entitled to in accordance with the Commercial Policy, and based on that it shall calculate the amount by which the value of Orders shall be corrected.
6. Should the Client/Advertiser make actual Annual Net Expenditure lower than the declared amount, AMS shall have the right to request that the Client reimburse or adjust the granted Discounts, in accordance with items 6.5 and 6.9 of the Commercial Policy. The Client shall pay the complementary remuneration within 30 days of receipt of a correction invoice from AMS.
7. Should the declared Annual Net Expenditure be increased or should the Annual Net Expenditure exceed the declared amount, AMS and the Client, at the request of the Client, may agree new commercial terms and conditions, however the negotiated commercial terms and conditions may not be more advantageous for the Client/Advertiser than it would ensue from the currently binding Commercial Policy.
8. If in line with the agreements made under items 7.7 above the Client shall be entitled to the discount due/reimbursement, the settlement shall be made based on the correction invoice issued by AMS.
9. If in the course of a calendar year the Client, who in its own name and for the benefit of the Advertiser purchases Advertising Campaigns, changes, the amount of Net Advertising Campaign Expenditure of a given Advertiser incurred through the intermediary of the previous Client in given calendar year shall be summed with the Expenditure made through the intermediary of a new Client, provided that the above arrangement does not lead to any divergence from the provisions of the Commercial Policy.

VIII Term of the Commercial Policy and amendment hereto

1. This Commercial Policy and the Price List shall enter into force on 1 January 2020 and they shall be effective until 31 December 2020, subject to item 7.11 of the Commercial Policy.
2. In the event of any conflict of the provisions of the Commercial Policy with the provisions of the General Terms and Conditions of Display of Advertisements on Advertising Media of AMS S.A., or General Terms and Conditions of Digital Display of Advertisement on Digital Advertising Media the provisions of the Commercial Policy shall apply.
3. Any amendments to the Commercial Policy and/or the Price List shall be made in the event of:
 - a) amendments to the provisions of law which significantly affect the possibility to Display Advertisements or in any other material way amend the principles of doing business on the media market or require an amendment to the currently binding terms and conditions of the Commercial Policy,

- b) decision of AMS,
 - c) amendments to the provisions of local law which significantly affect the conditions and the possibility of Advertisement Display, entered into force as a result of adopted acts on landscape.
4. The information on the amendment to the Commercial Policy and/or the Price List shall be posted on the website of AMS, and the Clients that are bound by contracts with AMS will be additionally notified of the fact and the scope of the amendment by sending them information to the e-mail address indicated by the Client. If within two weeks as of the day on which the information is received the Client does not oppose to it in writing, it shall be taken to mean that the Client agreed to the amendment of the Commercial Policy and/or the Price List, subject to the fact that an amendment to the Commercial Policy and/or the Price List that results in an amendment of material contract element shall require conclusion of an amendment. If the Client, within the time limit referred to above, opposes to the amendment to the Commercial Policy and/or the Price List, depending on the decision of AMS the contract shall continue to be performed on the currently binding terms and conditions or it shall be terminated in the part that pertains to the unperformed Advertising Campaigns affected by the amendment of the Commercial Policy and/or the Price List, and the Client shall have no right to make any claims towards AMS for contract termination.
